PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GET REAL HOPE Helps Readers Discover Hope, Purpose, and Transformation

New devotional by businessman, speaker, and encourager Matt McIntyre offers 75 authentic, Scripture-centered devotionals to help readers not only survive life's challenges—but thrive in their faith.

DALLAS, Texas — In a world marked by discouragement, defeat, and doubt, author Matt McIntyre is offering something many people desperately need: Real Hope.

Releasing November 5th, 2026, GET REAL HOPE: 75 Authentic Devotionals to Help You Survive and Thrive is more than a devotional. It is an invitation to discover your God-given identity, embrace your purpose, and experience the life-changing hope found in Jesus Christ.

Written in Matt's honest, humorous, conversational style, the book combines personal stories, biblical truth, reflection questions, practical application, Scripture, and action steps that invite readers of all ages to receive what God says about their lives, embrace the hope found in Christ, and put their faith into action.

"These devotionals didn't begin as a book," Matt explains. "They started as simple emails to friends and family—things God was teaching me or reminding me of. People began sharing them and encouraging me to turn them into a book. That's exactly what this is: those same messages, now gathered together to encourage even more people."

Written for men and women in every season of life, GET REAL HOPE reminds readers that their past and circumstances do not define them. Their identity is found in the God who created them, loves them, and has a purpose for their lives.

This devotional book is part of the overarching Get Real Hope Project, which includes Matt's speaking, podcasts, YouTube channel, and additional events—all designed to carry the message of real hope farther and impact more lives.

Friends often describe Matt as a "noticer" because he sees what others overlook and as a "reminder" because he continually reminds people who they are in Christ. Throughout the book, every devotional points readers back to five foundational themes that have shaped Matt's life: Hope, Perseverance, Truth, Love, and Action—all centered on Jesus Christ.

Matt is the founder and CEO of Peak American Investment Advisors and has spent more than 30 years building businesses focused on helping people navigate their financial needs. Matt has always been passionate about people—encouraging them, recognizing their potential, and helping them move forward. That passion extends beyond business as he speaks and writes about faith, purpose, and the hope found in Jesus Christ.

Matt's longtime friend, David Seibert, Lead Development Officer for Museum of the Bible, wrote the book's foreword and has witnessed Matt's faith journey firsthand:

"Matt is the real deal. He struggles like the rest of us, but he keeps seeking the Lord, then turns around to encourage others. Most importantly, he points people to Jesus—because he knows he can't fix anybody, but Jesus can. He wants others to experience the hope and freedom that he has found."

Nate Sheets, founder of Nature Nate's Honey; one of the driving forces behind the global "I Am Second" media campaign; and a candidate for Texas Agriculture Commissioner, shares:

"The best thing about books is that you are getting the best thinking of the author! The best thing about Matt McIntyre is getting to spend time with him...being encouraged...having him speak into your life with Godly wisdom...and absolutely being inspired! So, GET REAL HOPE...is both!"

GET REAL HOPE: 75 Authentic Devotionals to Help You Survive and Thrive will be available November 5th, 2026, at GetRealHope.com and Amazon in paperback and ebook. Pre-orders are available now on the website.

AUTHOR INFORMATION

ABOUT MATT MCINTYRE

Matt McIntyre has been radically changed by an incredibly generous God. He grew up in a chaotic home in Flint, Michigan, raised by a hardworking single mother who taught him resilience and perseverance. After experiencing his share of personal and business failures, Matt found success as an entrepreneur and businessman. Though every day is not a diamond, Matt has learned to shine some rocks until they start to gleam like diamonds.

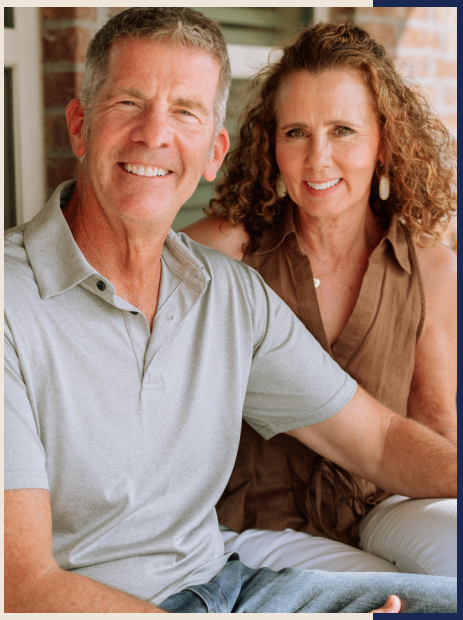

As of this writing, Matt and Kim have been married for 35 years and live in North Texas. He has been incredibly blessed with four children, three grandchildren (and counting), meaningful friendships, and wonderful people he gets to work with every day.

His passion and purpose are helping people see who God created them to be. He recognizes the gifts, potential, and God-given identity in others and helps them see and believe it for themselves. What others miss, he tends to notice—which is why Kim calls him a "noticer."

A DEVOTIONAL FOR EVERYONE

GET REAL HOPE was written for anyone longing to discover lasting hope, purpose, and the life-changing truth found in Jesus Christ.

Whether you're walking through one of life's greatest challenges or simply desire to grow deeper in your faith, Matt McIntyre invites readers to discover that they are created for more. This devotional is for men and women, young and old—for anyone who feels discouraged, overwhelmed, stuck, searching for purpose, or simply needs a reminder of God's unfailing love and promises.

Life can be difficult. People get sick. Marriages struggle. Businesses fail. Dreams are delayed. Hearts are broken. Questions remain unanswered. At times, it can seem as though hope is slipping away.

Matt understands those seasons firsthand.

Having experienced personal and business failures, unexpected disappointments, and life's many challenges, Matt has learned that real hope isn't found in better circumstances—it is found in Jesus Christ. Through God's faithfulness, he has discovered that every setback can become an opportunity for growth, perseverance, and a deeper dependence on Christ.

Inside the pages are 75 authentic devotionals filled with relatable stories, biblical truth, practical application, reflection questions, Scripture, and action steps. Each devotional is designed to help readers discover their God-given identity, embrace their purpose, strengthen their faith, and experience the hope that only Jesus can provide.

Throughout the book, Matt continually reminds readers that their past, their failures, or their circumstances does not define them. The God who created them defines them, loves them, and has a purpose for their lives.

Whether read in order, out of order, or returned to time and again, these short devotionals offer practical encouragement for everyday life and point readers back to the unchanging truth of God's Word.

More than simply reading another devotional, Matt's desire is that every reader would encounter Jesus Christ, experience His transforming grace, and discover the real hope that enables them not only to survive—but to thrive.

Real hope isn't found in better circumstances.
Real hope is found in Jesus Christ.
